

Interactive Training Programs

Features

- ⇒ can be created to be used on the web, from a desktop, or on a CD
- ⇒ effective way to create compelling and exciting experiences with the use of rich media such a video, audio and flash components while still being easy to use
- ⇒ full support for use of existing media components (flash files, PowerPoint slides, Microsoft word files)
- ⇒ the ability to create quizzes and exams to verify training completion and to test comprehension
- ⇒ types of questions available are true/false, multiple choice, pictorial hotspot questions, essay, fill-in-the-blanks, or matching
- ⇒ users will receive feedback on a per question basis or at the completion of a testing by the displaying of a passing mark certificate and a detailed assessment of their performance
- ⇒ trainers can also view this detail feedback assessment to gauge the difficulty of the training